

Created with EclipseCrossword — www.eclipsecrossword.com

across

3. To be succesful or proved right in the end, after people have criticised or defeated you earlier: to have the last
4. To know nothing at all about a question or problem: not to have a
5. To try to do something even though you think it will probably not work: to give a
9. Sad and discouraged: to be
11. to be extremely happy about something: to be over the
14. To say something without thinking carefully. You upset or embarrass another person: to put your in it
15. (Two words) to be extremely frightened: to be
17. Cheerful and confident: and breeze

down

1. A movie or a novel that is very well known and commercially successful: a
2. When somebody finally understands something: the dropped
6. To say something indirectly so that other people understand you : to drop a
7. Someone who cannot stop working, and does not have time to do anything else
8. So good or enjoyable. it is unlike anything you usually experience: out of this
10. (Two words) A relationship where you are always breaking up and getting back together again: an relationship
12. To look serious even when you want to smile or laugh: to keep a face
13. To look at someone in a way that shows you disapprove of or dislike them: give them a look
16. To suddenly make a lot of money: to it