Composer James Horner's score for TITANIC hits all the right buttons: the music fits the film almost perfectly.

Having to write music to fit a disaster eighty-five years prior, Horner used a delicate balance of the classic orchestrations and modern music devices to make the music breathtaking and powerful. His use of the synthesizer and guitars, along with traditional bagpipes, violins and flutes, makes this soundtrack live up to the grandeur of the movie itself. The music can change from triumphant to meek, from joyful to sorrowful, in an instant.

James Horner made a consistent score that always seemed to be lingering just under the action, ready to pump up the volume and jerk some real emotion out of you. The soundtrack actually guides the movie and pushes it forward.

YOU ARE GOING TO LISTEN TO THE MAIN SONG FROM THE FILM TITANIC, MY HEART WILL GO ON. SOME OF THE WORDS, HOWEVER, HAVE BEEN CHANGED.

- A. LISTEN TO THE SONG AND UNDERLINE THE WORDS THAT HAVE BEEN CHANGED.
- B. LISTEN AGAIN AND WRITE IN THE ORIGINAL WORDS.

MY HEART WILL GO ON

Celine Dion, James Horner, Titanic
(1997)

1998 Golden Globe Award-Best Song in a Drama

Every time in my dreams
I see you, I talk to you,
That is how I know you go on

Near across the distance
And spaces between us
You have come to prove you go on

Here, far, wherever you are
I believe that the heart does go on
Once more you close the door
And you're here in my hand
And my hand will go on and on

Love can teach us one time
And last for a lifetime
And always let go till we're one

Love was when I left you
One true time I hold you
In my love will never go on

Here, far, wherever you are
I believe that the heart does go on
Once more you close the door
And you're here in my hand
And my hand will go on and on

You're there, there's something I fear,
And I know that my heart will go on
We'll wait forever this way
You are safe in my hand
And my hand will go on and on

MY HEART WILL GO ON

Celine Dion

Every night in my dreams
I see you, I feel you,
That is how I know you go on

Far across the distance
And spaces between us
You have come to show you go on

Near, far, wherever you are
I believe that the heart does go on
Once more you open the door
And you're here in my heart
And my heart will go on and on

Love can touch us one time
And last for a lifetime
And never let go till we're one

Love was when I loved you
One true time I hold to
In my life will always go on

Near, far, wherever you are
I believe that the heart does go on
Once more you open the door
And you're here in my heart
And my heart will go on and on

You're here, there's nothing I fear,
And I know that my heart will go on
We'll stay forever this way
You are safe in my heart
And my heart will go on and on
