

Mysteries and Oddities

Across

4. Caused by forces that cannot be explained by science (adjective): 'She is said to have _____ powers and to be able to communicate with the dead'.
6. An unusual and mysterious event that is thought to have been caused by a god, or any very surprising and unexpected event.
11. Something that exists and can be seen, felt, tasted, etc., especially something which is unusual or interesting: 'The paranormal is a psychic _____'.
12. A fact or piece of information which shows that something exists or is true.
14. Adjective to describe a mystery, crime, etc. for which there is no satisfactory explanation or it is not known who it was committed by.
15. The ability to know what is in someone else's mind or communicate with them mentally, without using words or other physical signals.

Created with EclipseCrossword — www.eclipsecrossword.com

Down

1. Adjective to describe something or someone very strange and unusual, unexpected or not natural.
 2. An action which is intended to deceive, either as a way of cheating someone, or as a joke or form of entertainment: 'It's a bit of _____ photography - she's meant to look like she's walking on water'.
 3. Signs or information which help you to find the answer to a problem, question or mystery.
 5. A feeling that something, especially something unpleasant, is going to happen.
 7. Made to look real or valuable in order to deceive people (adjective and noun): 'Experts revealed that the painting was a _____'.
 8. Feeling lack of trust or doubt in someone or something (adjective).
 9. Strange and frightening (adjective, INFORMAL).
 10. A plan to deceive someone, such as telling the police there is a bomb somewhere when there is not one, or a trick.
 13. The spirit of a dead person, sometimes represented as an, almost transparent image of that person, which some people believe appears to people who are alive.
-